HENDRICK HUDSON'S DREAM. The southern breeze had died away.
The ebbing tide to seaward ran;
It was the twilight hour of day.

E'er Night her starry reign began. Hendrick bad dropped his anchor there, Beneath the bristling Palisade, When sunset streamed its golden hair On nature's face in slumber laid.

And as he paced the decks alone, Fond memory brightened into hope; The past was his, and the unknown Was in the future's horoscope.

He stopped, and gazing at the view, Sat leaning o'er the galliot's side, And saw the Indian's light cance ance on the sparkling star-lit tide.

The music of the parted stream, The laughing land air's vesper sigh Stole o'er his senses, and his dream Was child-like with the lullaby.

He thought he saw the small canon Grow big and bigger, bigger yet-Till suddenly before his view It was a sloop with mainsail set.

And then this white bird had her young; They grew like her and clustered round;
And "Yo! heave ho!" was cheerily sung
As sloops were up and downward tound.

And still hey grew-as fashlon's dames Increase in flounce and furbelow—
Brigs, ships and crafts of various names
Float round the anchored Dutchman's be 'T was nothing strange; he'd seen them oft,

Perhaps le-s jaunty, snug and trim; But then those flags he saw aloft? Those stars and stripes were new to him. But now he sees, or thinks he sees,

A mill affoat with water-wheels Revolving, coming near! His knees They shake—bold Hendrick nervous feels. It thunders on, with furious blast-Becomes the devil's ship of fire; Like lightning s 'eeps the galliot past On bickering wings that never tire.

And underneath the lurid light She leaves above her foamy track, Up jumps to his astonished sight. A city on Manhattan's back!

Through thousand whistles in his ear; And flends on fron horses seem To shout along her mad career.

He thinks 'tis Hell! Its demons scream

Hendrick awoke! He could not sleep, As Rip Van Winkle slept of yorc, Nor could his mate the night-watch keep "Till eighteen hundred seventy-four.

GENERAL NOTES. One of the chandeliers of the new opera house, Paris, cost $15,000.

The estimate value of real estate property in the republic of Mexico amounts to $340,- the occupants were forced to lie down on the was found in a crib floating in the Ohio and scaling the hights of roofs at danger-91,463, according to official returns.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy rail-

by the government, and including the of this heroic crew they were not able amounts thus forwarded by the mixed Half of the thrilling incidents of the great to be one of the missing Hunter children, the roar of the water gradually lessened commission, amounts to $11,464,273, which, flood on Butcher's run have not yet been instead of a daughter of Mr. McVay, as at until at length they subsided enough to divided among 9,000,000 of the inhabitants told. Mr. A. V. Cole, one of the members first reported. The body was

The management of Providence hospital | works were entirely wrecked, states that has promulgated a plan by which, for the when the flood of waters began to descend periodical pryment of a small sum (only 25 | no one had any idea that the flood would cents a month), a person may secure free sumed. Mr. Cole, who during the storm admission, nursing and medical attendance stood outside of his dwelling located just in at the hospital in case of accident or sick- the rear of the hill at the upper ing, led by a full choir. Inside the choir is when lighted up by the continuous flashes is that of a woman and is probably a paid quartet. The trustee set apart $7,500 of lightning. When the great flood of water the body of Mrs. Hunter from for music. To this is added $500 more, rushed down the run he likened the sound same section. The name given by bringing it up to $8,000. Fifteen hundred of produced to the roaring of Niagara Fells, burial committee is that of Mrs. Griffith. this is paid to Mr. Zundel as organist. The balance the leader uses at his discretion.

pattern and machine shop, and damaged the Renkauf, aged one year, and the nurse girl, light. Two bridges were somewhat damaged moulding shop of the Wright Engine Miss Nolting, aged fourteen. When the Works of this city. The building, fixtures flood began, Mr. Renkauf was visit-Works of this city. The building, fixtures flood began, and tools were oweed by Homer Randall, ing a brother, on Spring Garden their regular trips. The first bridge was whose loss was $55,000. Wright & Co.'s run. Mrs. Renkauf went to her front damaged by baving the Rev. Isaac Banks loss is $20,000. The losses are covered by in- door cisco, and tell the latter city to keep on trying. The new Palace Hotel at San Francisco to the second story where the children were. is to be six stories high, 350x275 feet, and She found that she was unable to get up the a fence against which several stacks of wheat will contain 700 rooms. The total cost of the stair case, and then tried to get to the rear of lodged and stopped the water, until the establishment, including the ground, build- the house, if possible, to save the sleeping pressure became so great that the fence gave ing and furniture, is placed at $2,750,000. ones by the up stairs window. She tried in way, and lodged against the bridge, bending at Bristol, England. In one of his letters to river, fell out, carrying her with it. She was at i o'cleck. his adored he wrote: "I wish, my darling, that you would not write me such long let- about one hundred yards, and was caught on lers. It you were to bring an action for the top of some of the debris of the glue would copy the correspondence between us and charge four pence for every folio of 72 words. The shorter the letters the more we of about twenty yards, in water waist deep, gave from the lawvers."

are numbered, and that within the coming cinity and did what they could in enabling decade, every pound of flour shipped east- her to reach the shore. She is in delicate ward will be in barrels and boxes made bealth, and the courage she displayed was from the straw on which the wheat grew. The conversion of straw into paper is a process already quite familiar, and, in the next step of converting it into paper mache, there is nothing to daunt either the intrepitdity or ingenuity of this inventive age. We have large trays and bowls and tubs made of this material now, and the step which would extend the size to that of a barrel has often been exceeded in late years.

at night will soon cover the scrawniest bones. In cases of fever and summer complaint, milk is now given with excellent results. The idea that milk is 'feverish' has exploded and it is now the physician's great reliance in bringing through typhoid patients, or those in too low a state to be nourished by solid food. It is a mistake to serimp the milk pitcher. Take more milk and buy less meat. Look to your milkman; have a large-sized, well-filled milk pitcher on the table at each meal, and you will also have sound flesh and light dectors'

Exhibition of 1868. This beautiful example, and obtain some kindling for the cook stove, painted probably about the same time as his as he desired to go to work early on Monday there were heavy rains, but no great demorning The wife placed the wood in the struction. In Allegheny, at Butchers' run, the more appailing are the revelation She notified her husband of the fact, and grand nephew, and exhibited recently at Burlington House, at the Winter Exhibition of Old Masters, 1871, sold by order of the High Court of Chancery, was knockeddown for £1,630. A portrait of David Garrick, by Sir John Reynolds, exhibited at Manchester, belonging to Gen. Fox's collection, sold for £77 14s. From another property, "A Portrait of Isr John and Taker and T

PITTSBURG'S CALAMITY.

THE TERRIBLE TALE.

SCENES AND INCIDENTS.

VISITING THE RUINS-THE HEROES-PERIL-OUS ESCAPES-ACCOUNTS FROM EYE WIT-NESSES-DESTRUCTION OF A WHOLE FAMILY -A FLOATING CRADLE-THE BAILROAD

PITTSRURG, PA., July 29 .- Thousands of the exertions of Frederick Schultz, who resides on Iten street, high above the reach of the flood. Iten street runs from the hill to Swiftly the water rose until it stood flye feet of O'Hara street, nearly opposite the pork Ohio street. Schultz heard the piercing in the room with a current like a mill race screams of the drowning victims at his bome, and rushing out attempted to make Mrs. B. instinctively setzed each a child and Center street, and made his way down them. For a few hours these two hung to danger. One of these men suddenly felt the nearly to Ohio street where he found a skiff. Notwithstanding the swift current he made his way up to Center street and Spring and were all rescued. McManns, who with the snapping assunder of timber, like so many Garden avenue, and with the assistance of remaining child rushed to the street, by twigs, and the second story and attic of the two men, who got into the skiff, succeeded in recovering eleven bodies. His description of the scene which transpired during onto the roof of a shed, where they were also adjoining, where it still remained last even went to the rescue, and specially floated from the first story and was landed on the top of the building adjoining, where it still remained last even went to the rescue, and specially floated from the first story and was landed on the top of the building adjoining, where it still remained last even went to the rescue, and specially floated from the first story and and was landed on the top of the building adjoining, where it still remained last even went to the rescue. the night were thrilling in the extreme, saved. One singular feature of the flood has ing. Alarmed for their safety these men The victim was clinging to the corner of the from the flood was injured. The dead all building in the most hurried manner house, and it was found necessary to drag bore marks of bruises and mangling, The houses were now piled together in a prothe body away by main force, so tight was but, notwithstanding the top- miscuous heap, and they had to wait for the the death crip. The boat in which they were pling of houses and avalanches intervals of the flashes of lightning to see riding was caught in a terrible maelstorm of timber and debris, those who escaped where to leap. They braved their dangers and whirled about with such violence that from the wreck came out unburt. A baby nobly, faced the storm with heroic courage, bottom to save themselves. Fortunately rescue a single of the firm of C. Holler & Co., whose glue Plymouth Church has congregational sing- water as outlined on the opposite bank, Mr. Cole described the incidents attending the destruction of the dwelling occupied by to ascertain the extent the flood, and upon opening it the waters Chicago must shake hands with San Fran- rushed in in a great volume andwas soon sev-

THE SWEEP OF THE WATER

SWEPT DOWN THE RUN breach of promise against me the lawyers works. She clambered over this, and had to wade from that point to the shore, a distance Her calls for assistance were responded to by It is said that the days of wooden barrels several men who happened to be in the viremarkable. During the time she was being swept away, Mr. A. V. Cole, with his brother Isaac, went to the rear of the house by means of a private lane leading past it, and, by shouting at the top of their voices, en-The roar of the A writer says: "If one wishes to grow his brother then picked up clumps bounded by high and precipitous bluffs, Their mangled bodies were found about one the heroic efforts for their rescue. Another watchman of the glue works, He started up stairs to get just A number of paintings by Sir Joshua Reyand he was compelled to jump down to a extreme northeast; then Woods' run, en nolds have just been sold in London for the coal house which stood in the vicinity of the the extreme southwestern side of Allegheny; young actress as a nymph, carrying the in- with that made for the shore, which he re- side of the Monongahela, opposite Hazelfant Bacchus, wreathed with wine leaves, ached in safety. The sudden rise of the wood. on her shoulder. The picture is engraved waters in Butchers run is well illustrated by by S. W. Reynolds, and was purchased at some incidents related by a German, family, source. The captain of the steamer L. C. was alone in the house when the water tore eral rods, the inmates fleeing for escape di-McCormick, reported that he passed three over the back wall on the ground floor, rectly into the midst of 19 feet of water, dead bodies floating in the Ohio river, about and dashed towards the front of the which in the few seconds which elapsed 27 miles below the city, but was unable to room on O'Hara street. Had the from the first appearance of the trouble, reach them. The loss on the estate of A. Hove-ler, on Butcher's run, will reach $1,500. dooor and broken out the the glass, the ground adjacent the run. Among the many heroic acts reported are whole family would have drowned like so his way through the water to O'Hara street. clung to this bar with the grip of despair, Finding that impossible, he swam down to while the cold, muddy torrent swept over storm, little dreaming of their impending

> THAT PROVIDENTIALLY PLACED BAR, one alive. found in the Ohio river yesterday, proved in the water. The wails soon died away, IDENTIFIED BY A RING on the little finger. The remains were sent dead. At to Temperanceville this morning and will despatched to the river for skiffs, and one or two persons rescued by means thereof. reach the great proportions which it as- be buried to-day with those of her father, Diebold says the water came with the which was found yesterday. Last evening rapidity of two bodies were picked up on the Allegheny filling everybody with the end of the glue works, says that the hill had side of the Ohio river. One of them was not many were drowned by their own foolthe appearance of immense sheets identified as the body of William Hosley, ish attempt to save themselves by plunging from the Saw Mill run district. The other but no person of that name is known to be missing from that district. The damage Mr. August Renkanf and the drowning of done to the Pittsburg & Castle Shannon R. aged, but have already been repaired and which had been moved two blocks, and de passenger and coal trains are now making of church washed down against it with such force as to knock out one of the trestles. Nothing but a pile of boards and timber reeral feet deep. A number of articles of furni- mains of the church, and the place where it trestle would have escaped entirely but for PERSONAL EXPERIENCES.

THE PECULIARITY OF THE DISASTER-ITS SUD-DENNESS AND GIGANTIC POWER-THE NAR-

RATIVES OF EYE-WITNESSES-HEROIC AC-TIONS AND WOMAN'S SELF SACRIFICE. The Pittsburg Telegraph of the 28th inst. gives an extended account of the terrible disaster in that city, from which the following extracts are taken: The excitement that during the early hours of the evening, in recaused by the flood of Sunday evening, was most intense, and only paraileled by the scenes of war times after some great battle deavored to awaken the children who were It is a peculiarity of Pittsburg and Alleimprisoned in the upper story of the dwell- gheny that a number of ravines and gulches torrent drowned his debouch into their suburbs, and in Allevoice and he was unable to make himself gheny, in one or two instances, almost into heard above the tempestous element. He and the heart of the city. These are narrow then the house was swept off and disappeared | class of people, and generally Germans, who Sunday night had no equal in recent rains vicinity was the miraculous escape of the and the ordinary outlets so fall by the mornas in Massachusetts. The ravines where the there was about a foot of water in flood did the greatest, and about the only the lower story. He scarcely reached the damage to life, were in Allegheny, Butchers'

DURATION OF THE STORM. The storm seems to have been confined in | 80

in the meantime the water had reached such clock, just 40 minutes, in which all the de about one hundred and fifty yards from gloon and protound solemnity felt in all a height as to upset it, and he found it im- struction to life and property was worked. base to base. On eather side of the stream the history of both cities, and never, it is possible to get the articles, being compelled At Woods' run the church was flooded, and are built dwellings, which were all occupied hoped, shall we be called upon again to witto bastily vacate the apertment. The Eve-n ing Chronicle has the following from Stopped at 8:50. This marked the sentatives of the poorer classes of Germans. Fortunate victims, time the waters began to subside. The suftance from The Schanappert's, whose house ferers by this fearful catamity, with very few three feet in depth made its way down the proved the tomb of a family of six: The. schanappert's house stood immediately below the oil refinery of Holdship below the oil refinery of Holdship Co., and was struck by the birth. Not more than four or five names are down from the hill-tops, acted as feeders, ten days, the proceeds to be contributed to flood with fire enough to carry it complete- recognized, so far in either city, as known and in about ten minuts after the first visly from its foundations on Madison avenue outside of their immediate locality. The itation of the aqueous element along O'Hara the relief of the sufferers. Mr. F. W. Keefer and hurl it down the torrent. Langold hear- details and stories of such of the survivors street and Center avenue, it had reached in is president of this organization, and Masonpeople are again visiting the scene of the reing shrick upon shrick rend the air, looked as our reporters could interrogate last night cent great disaster to-day, which has been out from an upper window. The doomed and this morning, follow, and will be found ninetten feet. Many lives were saved by of charge, for the purpose. the case since its occurrence. At Butcher's Itun, lass evening, as the shadows crept over the sad precincts, the scene was peculiarly a dismal one. The thousands of visitors

| Continuous distriction of the cooled and this morning, follow, and will be found to follow. The cooled the cooled and this morning, follow, and will be found to follow. The cooled the follow. The cooled the follow. The cooled the follow. The cooled the follows was carried along within a stone's speedy removal from the lower rooms of their dwellings to the upper parts of the building. Amid such devastation the magnificence of the lurid lighted the magnificence of the lurid lighted the cooled the follows. The cooled the sad this morning, follow, and will remove the cooled the follows. The cooled the follows was carried along within a stone's speedy removal from the lower rooms of their dwellings to the upper parts morning is as follows:

| Continuous the cooled the follows was carried along within a stone's speedy removal from the lower rooms of the upper parts where the cooled the dead up to this apparently no street spectators. The people of their dwellings to the upper parts of the building. Amid such devastation the magnificence of the lurid lighted the magnificence of the lurid lighted the cooled the who crowded the ruins during the day had turned from the scene of death and destruction, and in some portions of south at the foct of Buena Vista street.

God Almighty, help us; God Save us.

It is thought the list will yet reach two dow, to witness the progress of the storm. It is thought the list will yet reach two dow, to witness the progress of collected hundred. The loss to property on Saw Mill In a little while many of them would have debris, horses, wagons, stables, par s-of run, and in the district contiguous thereto. the district reigned the silence of the tomb. Here it struck against a slaughter retired and had the violence of the storm dwellings, houses overturned, all of which in others the careless voices of children house and dissolved like a pile of snow in the been delayed a few moments longer, the form a confus d mass of indescribable matin others the careless voices of children house and dissolved like a pile of snow in the sounded in close proximity to devastated boiling waters. The shrieks were silenced, torrents would have washed away with ter, and but a faint correption of which can pal losses may be summed up as follows: homes, which are now in heaps of shapeless and only the crash and grinding of timbers ruins, and which doubtless conceals a large number of bodies not yet discovered. Ru O'Hara street, and occupy the last house unlike that of thunder, is heard; it apmors were current last evening that a man saved on the left going down the street. The proaches nearer and nearer, and a substan- nected with the awful affair. In and child had been taken alive from the family consists of Mr. and Mrs. B. and four tial building is wrested from its foundation many instances whole families perished, Zeigler's store and dwelling ruins, but they could not be traced to their children. A neighbor, Patrick McGanus, and carried away like a dog kennel, for sev- while in others, one or two are left from house, 14 men had taken up their position in the "dormer" window. They were watchmen upon the lighthouse wall, of the raging house going, and in a twinkling there was a permit those who had since appeared upon the scene to go to work searching for the a flash lightning. consternation, and he doubts est from their houses in the blinding storm, Mr. Hoover and daughter, who lived on the the run. The body of the mother and one child had been found in the ruins of the house, and the little had been recovered missing. His opinion was they were under the house on the opposite side of the street, posited in a straight line whence the volume of water coursed. THE TIME OF THE DISASTER.

FOURTEEN MEN ON THE LOOKOUT.

wild-

o'clock when the water burst on the streets Chicago Post.

Wain to rouse them. As she passed out of it so that it stopped the trains from going a sight Mr. Discold says he never witnessed wife was drowned also. A house came down the foundation down at its entrance, leaven the front door, the side facing the Allegheny any further up the roads until this morning in his life, and never wishes to look upon the valley, lodging below Concard street in the same and th pervaded the city yesterday afternoon and named George Fisher was next inter- brother. It so happened that the building to be a mistake, as no such occurviewed by our reporter. This young night, and all day yesterday, without sleep. fleshy, a pint of milk taken before retiring of earth and threw at the window, but just sometimes thickly populated by a poor ing, which had been jammed from age. pork house almost on to the in the flood, and the three children were have built their houses, mostly balloon street. He at once repaired there and stoopcrushed to death in its crumbling ruins, frames, on the hillsides. Great rain storms ing down, when the lightning came, saw a have always done more or less damage in little boy floundering in the water. It was hundred and, fifty yards below the scene of these gulenes to property; but the storm of but the work of the moment to descend to the water, and every effort was bent toward thrilling incident which occurred in this and the ground was so thoroughly saturated saving the little one-which endeavor was rewarded with success and the child rescued. ing's rain, that the sudden precipitation of Naturally, the unfortunate child asked for of the great flood: The undertaking estab- local paper says that the costumes of the acthought the flood was a small affair the immense mass of water at night, rendered his parents, but atas, they were not present lishments were besieged all day yesterday the opening night. The performance neath the ruins dead and mangled. The few moments later, when Mr. Fisher came upon the bodies of the mother and little daughter clasped in each others' following prices: "Portraits of Mrs. Hart- boilers. Out of this becrawled through an then on the south side, Sawmill run at Tem- arms in the embrace of death. The father district, were unwilling that the grave to the exhibitanting strains of questionable aperture while the water was up to his peranceville, and lastly where the damage and daughter are still missing. This is the should receive the precious tressure harmony. The play in plot and action was chin. Fortunately he secured a plank and was but light, at Beck's run on the north, Hoover family alluded to in the statement like all Chinese plays. There were combats ley and Child," representing the beautiful chin. Fortunately he secured a plank and was but light, at Beck's run on the north Hoover family alluded to in the statement of Mr. Diebold. Mr. Fisher next referred large households, to tell the tale of their deliverence. At every step it seems that the angry waters only grew more furious and run are added to the above figures, the total were dissa isfi d with their number of vic- loss will not fall below $400,000. At the house or saloon on the south side sad story of their misfortunes.

THE BUTCHERS' RUN DISASTER

RIDING IN THE CURRENT ON A ROOF. In one instance a family by the name of one could lend a helping hand, as it seemed every one had all they could do to save their own lives. The building, with its precious freight, moved on until it reached O'Hara street, when the skiff "Raby Annie," in He it was who discovered the body of Officer not been alluded to, so far as we are able to piled out of the "dormer" window "pell- child, an infant nine days old. There was to the "shinderey." The military are very Hess, who was drowned on Chesnut strest, ascertain. Only one person who escaped mell, scrambling over the roof to the next also a sen of the above named man, 16 years strict and will not persons to pass river at the head of Monteroy Island, 32 ons angles and fearful declivities, finally A widow lady by the name of Fogic lived in work. The whole neighborhood is becommiles below the city, yesterday afternoon, reached terra firms at a distance far enough a small brick building, and hearing the ing very repulsive on account of the deam of the decoming flood, ran to Third street. She had composition of dead animals, hence it is road has hired of the United States Rolling was changed, the floods having forced a near the island. The child was living, but to be out of danger. Christ Diebeld, a young succeeded in saving three of her children found absolutely necessary to remove their succeeded in saving three of her children found absolutely necessary to remove their and returned for the fourth child, which she carcasses in order that the men may be able pation of the pressure of business in carry- wrecks of houses, boards and household run district there is but little chance of any street when the storm was at its hight, was about to carry it to work. About 8 o'clock this morn pation of the pressure of business in carrying forward the crops.

Peru has made proposals to Germany for a treaty of amity, commerce and navigation, similar to that she recently concluded with similar to that she recently concluded with request in favorable terms to the federal request in favorable terms to the federal council of the pressure of business in carrying goods began to sweep down and clinging to work. About 8 o'clock this mornadditional bodies being found. It is probable that the remaining missing ones were additional bodies being found. It is probable that the remaining missing ones were additional bodies being found. It is probable to give witnesses of the carriest eye witnesses of the carriest eye witnesses of the scene of the earliest eye witnesses of the carriest eye witnesses of the scene of the earliest eye witnesses of the carriest eye witnesses of the scene of the earliest eye witnesses of the carriest eye witnesses of the scene of the earliest eye witnesses of the scene of the earliest eye witnesses of the earliest eye witnesses of the carriest eye witnesses of the carriest eye witnesses of the earliest eye witnesses of the save, when he arms, and was about to earlie them the body of Mary Conlen, a lift that the re cured the body. Several similar incidents clearing the streets of the accumulated screams could be heard on all hands, and by the name of Chock, who had an only mass of rubbish. The body of a man, who see The public debt of Mexico, acknowledged, occurred, but notwithstanding the efforts rubbish, and restoring them to a passable with each succeeding flash of lightning daughter living with her. Her dwelling of this heroic crew they were not able condition. The body of the child that was could be occasionally seen heads of persons was located in one of the most unfortunate the ruins on O'Hara street about 10 o'clock, safely on high ground. He then returned and gress of the search, weeping and with such conduct he, no doubt, has the thanks left of a family consisting of a futher, mother Diebold said he had been searching for a Mr. ledged near O'Hara street a little child was the aid of a practical engineer, whom north side of O'Hara street, just alongside of at its deliverance. This same party relates the causes of such a flood coming down as one of the most

HEARTRENDING INCIDENTS

name be could not give, was found in the low where the glue factory stood. second story of her dwelling, fastened in great weight was added the crambling the debris with which she was surrounded, buildings, and down they went, almost unwith her babe in her arms. Both she and run et this point, we found that it was Mr. Diebold thinks it was about 7:40 above her, and resting on her body, was | WORST FEATURE OF THIS WHOLE STREAM another little child, which was giso tastened, was this: In passing under the streets and and at 90'clock, as nearly as he can recollect, but which had managed to keep his head through some lots it had an arch built over the water had subsided. Thus it will be above the water, and it was taken out alive. it giving it a capacity of eight and one-half seen that in 40 minutes the work of destruc- This was certainly one of the most remarka- feet in width by about five feet in height tion was rendered complete, and the locality ble occurrences of the whole disaster. In this Just as the run passed under O'Hara stree of the disaster lay in waste and ruins. Such same house, the husband of the unfortunate should have been, but the owner had built in his life, and never wishes to look upon the valley, lodging below Concord street, in ing a passage way of only about sgain. The ghastliness of the scene was a half turned situation, in which were found eighteen inches in height. No wonde heightened materially by frantic women and an old man, his wife and two children, who the run dammed up so quickly, when bildren, who, despite the fearful storm, were saved, being taken from the building there was such a small place inrough which went scrambling about, at the peril of their at an early hour yesterday morning. An- the water could pass. Another sad feature lives, amid the darkness and desolation, other of the sad events which occurred was was that the houses were nearly all batloon confusion and chaos, in search of their loved that of a lady who, with nine children, was frames, and instead of being built on a four ones. Several persons, according to the taken from a building lodged on Church dation, were set on "stilts." This gave the statement of Mr. Diebold, were found in their alley. It seems that in this case the entire flood an opportunity to sweep them away night clothes, and others with their boots family were forced to succumb to the without any effort. the clothes, and others with their boots family were forced to succumb to the without any effort. It has been stated that, which would indicate that they had been sweeping current. On O'Hara street a number of persons have been taken out in bed, or were preparing to retire when the brick house owned by Mr. Fox was occupied alive at Butchers' run since yesterday morndisaster overtook them. A young man by himself and family and an unmarried ing, but upon special inquiry it was found was in the direct course of the moving mass, rences have taken place, man had appeared at the scene of the dis-aster immediately after the water had reced-to the flood, each to meet an unexpected public would reflect a moment they would ed and had worked during the whole of the death. There are various reports in regard easily see that such could not be the case, to the number of lives lost here, but it is be- for the mass of ruins was covered with wa-He gave a very vivid description of the re- lieved that the two Foxes, with the wife and | ter, and persons under the wreck could not sult of the his labors in extricating the liv- child of the married brother, which consti- possibly escape death by drowning. Insuring-for he rescued one little fellow alive-tuted the whole family, perished. At least ance agents are on the grounds locking up and the dead. With reference to the child none of them have been seen since the disastheir losses; but nothing could be gained rescued alive, Mr. Fisher said that shortly ter. Next door to this house, Jacob Metzer from them, as they could not even find the after arriving at the place where Mr. Hoov- and family resided, and they, too, were car- location of the property which they and iner's house stood, he heard bitter wails from ried away. In this row of buildings Alder-sured. The work will be continued day afthe water underneath the building adjoin-man Boister lost a little boy, five years of ter day until all the unfortunate district is

BURYING THE DEAD.

BER OF KILLED-THE RELIEF SOUGHT-CAUSES OF THE SUDDEN PLOOD.

The Pittsburg Telegraph of the 29th inst. of the bodies of the unfortunate dead before manner. Each actor was latter supposision was confirmed a their burial. Many were yet unrecognized, on his appearance by many marks of approand it seemed that many citizens, though bation from his immediate circle of friends.

Tea drinking was indulged in to a large excomparative strangers to the unfortunate tent, and cigars and cigarettes were smoked to the finding of the body of a girl, in a secure the recognition of the dead. ments and pursuits. There was a bucolic shaughter house, near the foot of O'Hara Notwithstanding the desires and anxieties vein rippling through the spirit of the drama, street. Her head was hauging out of the of the assembled multutide, many were carthe sale of the Marchioness of Thomond's that resided in a stone dwelling, lits violence in a circle that would take in pictures, who was the niece of Sir Joshua. opposite Haneller's glue works. The hus pictures, who was the niece of Sir Joshua, opposite Haneller's glue works. The hus lits violence in a circle that would take in but after considerable difficulty it was re- names will never be known. The solemn was the occasion of no small amount of en- leased and extricated. The body was not scene will linger in the minds of all who with thus lasm. The theater is large, and is said nessed the services until time shall end to have cost $50,000. their earthly existence. The greatest number of funerals took place from the undertaking | Secretary Northrop's school report for the struction. In Allegheny, at Butchers' run, the more appailing are the revelations conengaged upon his great work of "The Ugo-lina," sold for £2,520. "A Portrait of Ed-her work, the water had reached the floor. Where the violence was greatest, it seems to nected with its history. It has been stated be nowited. The purial services began at an mund liurke," the property of his greatgrand nephew, and exhibited recently at suggested that they had better

She notified her husband of the fact, and have been caused by a collision of opposing that this terrible calamity was caused by the early hour in the morning and were kept four and sixteen at ending the public bursting of a sawer on Madison avanue but

A COMMENDABLE ACT.

Little Sawmill Run Railroad... Salt Works property 50,000

$245,000 When the losses all along the line of the Our reporter again visited Butcher's run scores into eteralty. Among those who had this morning and found things in a much the fortune to escape, our reporter gained an better shape than vesterday. The squads interview with only a few, who related the are thoroug ly organized and the work of clearing away the debris is being successfully prosecu ed. East street has been elegred and the principal points now being work d upon are O'Hara and Center stress. It is Siperick came down the current on the root the intention this afternoon to begin the of a frame house screaming for help, but no draining of Beckty's meadow, and it is thought a large number of the missing will be found in that locality. The work of REMOVING DEAD ANIMALS is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible; up to 12 o'clock to-day eleven cattle, nine horses, four mules and three or four went to the rescue, and succeeded wagon loads of calves and sheep were turned in saving Mr. Giperick, his wife and over to the fallmaster, who conveyed them of age, who climbed over the moving mass to within the lines without a permit from heada brick building standing on the corner of quarters. Maj. Gen. Pearson has his Center street and Spring Garden avenue, headquarters located at No II O'Hara street. upon the roof of which he was compelled to where all orders are issued, and all reremain all night. His situation was terri- ports made. The greatest anxiety seems to ble, but he clung to life with an iron be to recover the lost, and to this end, about grasp and succeeded in saving himself, one hundred men are kept constantly at cortions of the whole line. While the water and the workmen were searching diligently was raging and the aquetus element had in the same place, as it was thought others reached a depth of four feet, Curry Wiggins, a were under the rubbish. A touching scenyoung man, made his way to the entrance of occurred at this point. A little boy about the dwelling and took the widow in his arms fourteen years of age, sat on a broken tirand waded through the flood, landing her her nearly all forenoon watching the proseized the daughter and bore her safely to heart almost broken. On being interrogathe same spot. This was a noble act, and for ted it was found that he was the only on of these parties. Yesterday morning a num- and three children. The parents and one ber of live persons were found in the over- child had been found, but his little sister lies turned houses. One of the most remarkable hid, he did not know where. He remained escapes which we have to chronicle is given anxiously awaiting her exhumation untiby Peter Shafer. On going to a bailding near 12 o'clock, when he left the scene. With rescued from the roof and seemed rejoiced we met on the grounds, we inquired into were in a perfect avalanch. In going up to the corner of Madison avenue and East alive, but the father and daughter were still which can be conceived. A woman, whose street it was found that a large collection of obstructed. In viewing the location of the her babe were in the arms of death, but just partly filled with rubbish from above. The > San Francisco has another Chinese theats THE INTERMENTS OF THE DEAD-THE NUM- and it has just opened to the public. At the first performance 1,800 persons were present. and manifested much interest in the play. which lasted from 7:30 Saturday evening contains the following additional particulars until nearly 3 o'clock the next morning. A tors were magnificent, and were all made for by anxious spectators, desiring to get sight passed off in the most convivial without putting forth every effort to and intrigues, murders and suicides, elope-